The agency celebrated 25 years since its establishment, on the 7 May, with continual reinvention, change, transformation in its DNA and a lot of firsts.

Create Mozambique was born in Maputo in 1996 as Pangolim Publicidade, pioneering the re-establishment of the advertising industry, in 1997 it became the first local agency to be affiliated to an international network with Ogilvy and was renamed Ogilvy Mozambique.

In 2018, a joint venture was established with the Dentsu Group, in the first substantial investment by a communications multinational in Mozambique, bringing new technologies, tools and digital expertise to the market.

During these past 25 years, the agency has evolved as the market opened up to the importance that advertising and marketing has on the impact of businesses, brands and institutions.

Talking about the firsts steps of the agency is synonymous with talking about the energy of the '90s of rebuilding a new Mozambique. João dos Santos, the founder, was a pioneer in establishing the agency: “We were there side by side with brands that are crucial to the growth of Mozambique and that is why we had the opportunity to grow with them. We created the first TV campaigns for 2M and Laurentina Beers, the first TV campaigns in the banking sector for BPD, the Jeito brand and the first HIV prevention campaigns, we created the brand identities for Açúcar Nacional and the Maputo Port, we did the rebranding of BSTM to Standard Bank, of Banco Austral to Barclays, the first local campaigns for DSTV and so many more. Fortunately, we have many happy stories to tell, it will always be unfair to single out a client but our 25 year relationship with 2M is something that we are very proud off.”

Create's operating model is built on people and systems focused on client needs, to deliver class-leading communications solutions for brands through a single integrated team that operates seamlessly across the various platforms. With operations in advertising, public relations, brand activation, content marketing and media management, the agency bets on digital as its area of fastest growth.

The Create team is a mix of experience and youth representing multidisciplinary skill sets of the best in Mozambique, ready to tackle challenges regardless of the area of communication, with a strong focus on creativity, innovation and digital technology.

The agency is managed in a collaborative way by an executive leadership team, with Cátia de Sousa as MD, focused on integration, speed, cost efficiencies and world class solutions delivery with strong local relevance.

In 2020, after a very challenging year for all sectors, Create Mozambique was the most awarded advertising agency in the country: In the Loeries, the International Festival of Africa and the Middle East, the agency brought a prize to Mozambique - a Bronze, in the category Shared Value - which awarded a very special project, Cerveja Impala, an initiative that involves impacting small farmers in their local communities. And because advertising has a universal language, also at the Lusophone Creativity Awards in Lisbon, the Mozambican agency left its mark by winning 11 awards, including a Grand Prix.
