

King James Group acquires a majority stake in Cedar SA

After completing a licensing agreement deal with Cedar Communications Limited in the UK, King James now has a majority stake in privately-owned content marketing agency Cedar SA.

This announcement follows the recent deal with retail and shopper marketing agency, 34°, making it the group's second acquisition for the year. Cedar SA will continue to operate as an independent agency brand within King James Group structure.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>