

Donald Kau joins the ropes of Meropa Communications

Mr Donald Kau, former National Spokesperson and Stakeholder Relations Manager at the National Ports Authority of South Africa, has joined the executive of Meropa Communications, one of South Africa's largest public relations consultancies.

Having worked within the Transnet group since 1995, Kau has extensive experience of working 'in-house'.

He will be working closely with Meropa chief executive, Peter Mann and director, Wandile Mkhathshwa in steering the affairs of the company, and will have executive responsibilities at Meropa which will include client-facing, marketing and management work.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>