

2011 Graduate recruitment programme opens at brandhouse

brandhouse is calling for graduates to join its 2011 Graduate Recruitment Programme, part of the Diageo Africa 'Growing together' Graduate Programme which offers graduates an opportunity to work with world brands. The company currently has 13 graduates and wishes to extend this to 20 for 2011.

The programme provide graduates with the opportunity to be part of a winning team and work on a wide range of live projects and networks around the world. On the job training provide graduates with the necessary skills, knowledge and experience and development of leadership expertise will help them get the most out of their teams and projects.

Graduates can choose from various areas such as Commercial (Sales and Marketing), Supply, Procurement, Finance or Human Resources and must complete three 12-18 month rotations within the chosen function, combining practical and theoretical learning across a variety of contexts.

For more information go to www.brandhouse.co.za.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>