

Gallagher staff achieve CMP status

Three of Gallagher Convention Centre's employees recently achieved their Certified Meeting Professional (CMP) status, following the recent international Convention Industry Council's exam in South Africa. They are executive team members Charles Wilson, Ciné Dunkley and Mandy Barrell. As the foremost international certification of the meetings, conventions and exhibitions industry, the CMP programme recognises individuals who have achieved the industry's highest standard of professionalism. The process of the programme and the ultimate examination is a stringent one and ensures a high testing standard of the individual's knowledge and experience of the industry within 'best meetings management practices'.
