

Three new clients for Marcus Brewster

Marcus Brewster has signed three new accounts to its Cape Town client roster: Business Arts South Africa (BASA), Painted For You and Rubenesque.

BASA has contracted with Brewster to increase corporate membership in the Western Cape and to raise awareness of art sponsorship amongst the business community.

Painted For You is a high street gallery service offering customised original artwork produced according to client specification.

Rubenesque is a lingerie boutique geared to the more curvaceous customer. Launching at Cavendish Square end-March, Rubenesque will carry the French brand Freya, American lines like Goddess and Fantasy and will be the sole licensee for the upmarket British Rigby & Peller range, sold by appointment to the Queen.
