

Full line-up times announced for Ultra SA 2019

One-hundred EDM artists are set to perform across six stages at Ultra South Africa 2019. The electronic dance music festival will stop at The Ostrich Farm in Cape Town on 1 March before heading on over to the Nasrec Expo Centre in Johannesburg on 2 March.

ULTRA SA announces 2019 dates, venues and ticket info

22 Aug 2018

The main stage will have SA's best of the best – from Ultra SA veterans Dean FUEL, Fresh and Euphonik, each massive celebrity DJs in their own right, to the new Prince of SA Dance Music Max Hurrell as well as No Method on the back of a massive 12 months with the lauded release of both City Lights and Wasted Love. They are all prepared to get the crowd going ahead of international legends including The Chainsmokers, Martin Garrix, Infected Mushroom and many more.

“ The Set Times for the 2019 edition of Ultra South Africa have arrived!

See U this weekend! #UltraSA2019 pic.twitter.com/9TvFi45aJV— Ultra South Africa (@UltraSA) February 26, 2019 ”

Resistance is bringing Black Coffee and his most talented friends to delight eardrums, along with Thor Rixon LIVE, MKLY, Vicmari, Pierre Johnson and Dwson in Cape Town and Lemon & Herb, Aero Manyelo B2B Bruce Loko and Avi Subban in Johannesburg. Expect hypnotic, deep and dirty sounds from RESISTANCE, keeping fans dancing all night long.

Johannesburg has two additional stages: Until Until and Samsung Galaxy. Samsung Galaxy will feature local celeb DJs including 5FM's Roger Goode, Das Kapital and Kyle Cassim as well as Kyle Watson, Apple Gule, Timo ODV and many more. Until Until, Joburg's coolest party promoters, have their own stage again which will feature the hottest local hip-hop talent in the country, guaranteeing a fully rounded festival experience.

DJs on the stage will include Major League, DJ Spontaneous, Banques, Frank Casino, Menzi XL, Lubonk and many more.

Tickets available via UltraSouthAfrica.com/tickets

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>