

Autobarn SA once again sponsors SuperHatch

Autobarn SA will once again be the naming rights sponsor for the SuperHatch Race Series and for 2017, it will be the sole overall naming rights sponsor.

“At Automotive Brands SA and Autobarn SA, we are complete petrol heads and live for all motorsport. The SuperHatch series has been excellent for our brand so it was a no-brainer to retain the SuperHatch Series for 2017,” says managing director, Terry Brand.

The company will also retain 42-year-old Centurion-based team driver and SuperHatch champion, Brett Garland (Autobarn SA Honda).

Garland has a colourful career in motorsport and has competed in the series for the last six years.
