Late Nite News with Loyiso Gola celebrates its 10th season shortly after the announcement of the newly elected cabinet. In one of the most exciting seasons yet, the LNN troupe watches closely as the new government finds its feet while dealing with outstanding business that has been dominating news headlines for the last few years.

LNN feature regulars such as our favourite MP, Honourable Madlingozi and the brazen Officer Celeste Ntuli as well as an array of the country's best comedians and performers.

In a first for LNN, our foreign correspondent, David Kibuuka will be stationed in Brazil to cover the World Cup as well as political issues around the world.

Chester Missing continues on his quest to grill our leaders and report on seminal political events in our country, with hilarious results. Deep Fried Man has exciting musical collaborations in store for this season.
