

Start tweeting to win a Nokia Lumia 800

As part of the 'Pimp our Devs' t-shirt design contest that Nokia is currently running on Springleap.com, Bizcommunity will be giving one reader a new Nokia Lumia 800 phone, valued at R7 000.

Designers are tasked with creating a t-shirt design that will instantly identify the wearer as a Nokia Developer or associate it with the brand, but to do so in a creative, self-interpretation of what it means to be a developer. Three important aspects need to be kept in mind as focal points for all designs: Imagination, Lumia and mobile. The contest is open for submissions at no cost until 20 July 2012.
