

Ghana Msibi to head WesBank's motor division

WesBank has appointed Ghana Msibi as the executive head of its motor division. Msibi was appointed after he spent time as the executive head of the company's sales and marketing.

As the motor division's head, he will dedicate his time to further entrenching WesBank in the market and to providing strategic alignment and continued support to dealers and original equipment manufacturers.

Msibi has held various senior positions within the WesBank Motor division after joining the company in 2015.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>