

The Saturday Star turns 120!

The Saturday Star, Johannesburg's most read weekend news and entertainment newspaper has turned 120 years old!

The birthday celebration was held at the SAB World of Beer in Newtown Johannesburg on Monday March 30th. The Gallery Room at SAB was decked out in Red, Black & Gold - the who's who in the media industry attended the glitzy event and were treated to a feast. Trevor Noah, had guests in stitches with his interpretation of our rainbow nation and things South African. For more information on the 120th birthday celebration get your special edition of the Saturday Star this Saturday!

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>