Among the key highlights of the once off showcase will be the spectacular Eastern Bridal Fair, which brings together a rosters of some of India’s and South Africa’s leading service providers ranging from wedding planners to bridal wear and deco specialists as well as exquisite wedding venue providers to name but a few.

True to India’s unimaginable amount of diversity, be it religion, dance, music, food and customs which differ from place to place, the bridal expo will provide brides-to-be and keen visitors alike with a versatile display of the best of Indian wedding affairs which are renowned for their extensive decorations, colors, costumes and rituals.

Thrilled to bring this grand new addition the Rand Show 2018, Experience India coordinator Anuradha Dasi had this to say: “Experience India will be an exciting addition to the Rand Show 2018, showcasing the vibrant, colourful cultural splendour of the Indian subcontinent.
