

Festival of Media Asia 2013: Rising Star Award

SINGAPORE: The Festival of Media is committed to connecting people and businesses, rewarding great work and showcasing thought leadership. With talent so essential to the media industry that we celebrate, we are proud to launch the following initiatives at this year's Festival of Media Asia.

The Festival of Media
Asia

New for 2013, The Rising Star Award, supported by Starcom MediaVest Group, will reward the brightest young talent in Asia. If you are under 30 and work in media and marketing, this is your chance to put yourself forward and be recognised by senior leaders. Find out more.

Talent clinics:

360executivesearch is offering delegates the chance to have a 1:1 session with an independent recruitment specialist who will advise on navigating the talent market, including recruitment strategy, talent retention and succession planning. To register your interest in a session click here.

Google's latest hire:

We are delighted to have Google's Karim Temsamani joining the stellar line up of speakers.
