

The sixth annual Design Foundation Awards Ceremony

The sixth annual Design Foundation Awards ceremony recently took place in the Silo District, Cape Town. The awards recognised the industry's top achievers in design, manufacture, commercial success and innovation. Each category was sponsored by a supporter of local talent.

The seven winners all took home a limited edition bronze trophy depicting a seated gorilla made by sculptor Otto du Plessis.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>