

South African Season in France Media Roundtable

At the recently held media roundtable in promotion of the South African Seasons in France, journalists and dignitaries alike enjoyed a meal while deliberating on the success of over 1,000 South Africans travelling to France as part of a cultural exchange.