

New junior producer appointed for Joburg City Theatres

Joburg City Theatres has appointed Lindiwe Lekasapa as its new junior producer. Lekaspa was previously general manager for The Dance Forum and has over five years of experience as a project and general office manager. Lekaspa will work closely with the artistic director and executive producer to host relevant in-house productions, co-production and tenant hires.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>