

Eusebius McKaiser parting ways with Radio 702

NEWSWATCH: Talk show host Eusebius McKaiser and Radio 702 announced on Twitter that they have decided to part ways.

Eusebius McKaiser. Image source: 702 website.

The station tweeted: "Radio 702 has invested in understanding what listeners – current and future – look for. Times change and so do lineups. Choosing a new direction doesn't mean we don't value past contributions, it just means we embrace a different future. We thank Eusebius and wish him well."

“ @Radio702 has invested in understanding what listeners – current & future – look for. Times change & so do lineups. Choosing a new direction doesn't mean we don't value past contributions, it just means we embrace a different future. We thank Eusebius & wish him well #Radio pic.twitter.com/x2KjpBPD Lu— 702 (@Radio702) June 11, 2020 ”

McKaiser also confirmed that he was leaving the station on Twitter. He tweeted: "Friends and loyal listeners of The Eusebius McKaiser Show on 702, I can confirm that I am leaving 702. I am deeply moved by your voluminous messages of support and love."

“ Wow. I took an afternoon nap and woke up to tons of your messages of love and support. I am leaving @Radio702 indeed. Last shown next Friday 19th June. Here's my statement below. Chat to you on #702OpenLine at 9am tomorrow as per usual. pic.twitter.com/WFx5Ynlz2R— Eusebius McKaiser (@Eusebius) June 11, 2020 ”

Clement Manyathela will be moving from his current slot at the Midday Report to take up McKaiser's 9am slot.

For more, read Eusebius McKaiser to leave 702 on TimesLive.