

MSC Group appoints veteran Michael Ungerer

The MSC Group has appointed industry veteran Michael Ungerer as the CEO of its new luxury brand.

Ungerer joins MSC with over 30 years of senior management experience in cruising as well as in luxury hospitality.

He will be based at the company's global headquarters in Geneva and will report to Pierfrancesco Vago, the executive chairman of MSC Group's cruises business and broader passenger division.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>