

Olympic International Footwear appoints new sales and development manager

Olympic International Footwear (Jordan & Co) has appointed Gary Gilder as its new sales and development manager. Gilder was formerly employed as the Barker and Crockett & Jones (Barker Footwear) sales manager.

Gilder has seven years of experience in the industry and has a diploma in business management from the Durban University of Technology (previously known as the Natal Technikon). Gilder says that his greatest achievement was playing cricket for South Africa as a left-arm fast bowler and right-hand batsman.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>