

TGI expands in Africa

Barbara Cooke and Tim Bester, licensees of TGI in South Africa, have announced that BMRB UK has signed a license agreement with Consumer Insight, a Nairobi, Kenya based company to launch TGI in Kenya, Uganda, and Tanzania.

"The CEO is Ndirangu wa Maina and we are in close contact with him to support his initiative and will continue to offer any assistance we can as he progresses," they say.

Including the planned extensions of TGI Arabia into Lebanon, UAE and Kuwait this year, these new developments will bring the total number of TGI countries to 57.
