

WAN-IFRA announces top Asian Media Awards

BANGKOK, THAILAND: The World Association of Newspapers and News Publishers (WAN-IFRA)'s annual Asian Media Awards were presented last night at a gala ceremony hosted in Bangkok by the Thailand Convention and Exhibition Bureau and opened by H.E. Prayut Chan-o-cha, the Prime Minister of Thailand.

The South China Morning Post (Hong Kong), Singapore Press Holdings and The New Straits Times (Malaysia) were among the top winners.

The 13th edition of the Awards gathered a record 595 entries from countries all over Asia and the Middle East, competing for excellence in printing quality, design, infographics, photography, editorial content, newspaper marketing and community service. The Best in Print Awards were sponsored by manroland web systems.

Thirty-two judges from international media companies in 17 countries evaluated the entries in the past months to select the 45 awards winners. The full list of winners can be found at www.wan-ifra.org/microsites/asian-media-awards-2015.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>