

One Club schedule of events for 2011 Creative Week NYC

NEW YORK, US: The One Club has announced the event line-up for the third annual Creative Week New York from 9-15 May. Creative Week New York is where advertising, design, and new media intersect with the arts.

The event aims to be about art and copy, concept and execution, pop-culture and high art, debate, inspiration and connection. Creative Week NYC, which is produced by The One Club, one of the world's foremost non-profit organisations dedicated to elevating creative work in the advertising industry, will host a number of key events throughout New York City. Media accreditation is now open for each of the following events:
