

The role of a press club

What role should a press club play in the media world, and what should it aim for?

Should a press club serve the interests of journalists, or support the existence of a free and democratic press? Or both? To what degree should it be apolitical/independent and self-governing?

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>