

A few favourite design things...

Launched at last week's Design Indaba, These Are a Few of Our Favourite Things is a book profiling the work of Durban-based design studio disturbance. Written by Art South Africa editor Sean O'Toole and containing a wealth of anecdotes from the designers themselves, the book is a warts and all portrayal of the trials, tribulations, successes and failures of a design studio at the "arse end of Africa".

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>