

Design mag dedicated to women in business

A quarterly magazine launched by Results Media in 2005, the latest and fifth edition - Women in Design in Business - focuses on the South African women who are in the frontline of making our country not just cutting-edge beautiful, but funky and functional as well - in architecture, sales strategies, branding, Internet interfacing and more. The title is available at CNA, Exclusive Books and other book shops and news agents countrywide.
