

Volkswagen opens new dealership in Nambia

Volkswagen South Africa has opened a new dealership in Nambia, which brings its total number of dealerships to 109 across South Africa, Namibia and Botswana.

The dealership is situated in Ongwediva, north of Namibia, and is a fully-fledged Volkswagen dealership with an art showroom, workshop and parts department.

The dealership employs 13 people and aims to grow Volkswagen's market share in northern Namibia through servicing customers located in the region.

The dealership opened its doors in December 2019.
