

Seeing things differently with kids' TV series

Produced for the SABC and the Parliamentary Millennium Project by Cape Town-based company Yellow Horse, Every View Counts is a new weekly series that allows children to imaginatively explore images and discuss ways in which perception and perspectives shape society. Presented by Lesedi Mogoatlhe, Every View Counts will air at 10:30am, SABC2 School TV, on Wednesdays from 24 January 2007 until 28 March 2007.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>