

Bowman Gilfillan Africa Group announced new appointments

Bowman Gilfillan Africa Group's (BGAG) expansion and development in Africa continues with the recent announcement of four new appointments in their Kenya office (Coulson Harney) and one in their Tanzania office (East African Law Chambers). Evans Monari, senior litigation counsel and partner, Anthony Njogu and Sean Omondi, both litigation partners, and Njau Mukuha, corporate/commercial partner, will officially join the Kenya office on 1 October, while Brian Kangetta will join as head of tax in Tanzania on 6 October.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>