

AMASA "Bling" Party

Sparkly outfits, fur coats and heavy silver chains a la Ali-G were the order of the evening on Friday, 17 November, as the AMASA Cape Town annual bash ignited the Camps Bay Promenade. The Zoo Weekly Angels hotted up the aptly-named venue 'Ignite' even further, along with MC Mark Bayly, who handed out the 'best-dressed' prizes.

It was all in the name of fun - fundraising, that is - as party-goers were able to do their bit for charity with donations of creche and school supplies for the Pebble's Project. Big up to all who supported the event... Til next year!

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>