

What stories were the biggest in the last week?

According to Acumen Media's latest report, here is a brief overview of the nation's biggest stories in the past week:

- The story of Woolworths deciding to close its hot food counters during the lockdown period.
- The on-going alcohol ban during the lockdown.
- The stories of food parcels being delivered across the nation.
- The FNB Stadium being turned into a treatment centre for Covid-19 patients.
- The two presidential addresses by Ramaphosa and the detailing of the different levels of lockdown.
- Somizi blocking Cyril Ramaphosa and Dischem price hiking during the pandemic.
- The UK putting its first trial vaccine into place.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>