

Kellogg's awarded for gender empowerment efforts at Top Women Awards

Kellogg's South Africa was awarded the top gender empowered retail award at the 2017 Top Women Awards. The awards ceremony, hosted by Topco Media in partnership with Standard Bank, was held at Emperors Place in Johannesburg.

The awards have been held every year for the last 14 years and are aimed at acknowledging South African companies that have made progress in bridging the gender gap. Kellogg's South Africa was awarded for its numerous efforts in empowering women within its company, which includes having a 50% female presence in its executive.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>