

Online, on the ball

CareerJunction has announced its first major sponsorship, as an associate sponsor to the Vodacom Super 14. This is also reputedly the first time SA Rugby sees an online company sponsoring this popular tournament. “We are excited to see how the sponsorship will benefit our brand. As one of South Africa's top sites, an association with the nation's favourite sport at a professional level is core to our online brand strategy,” says Kris Jarzebowski, CEO of CareerJunction.
