

#IamConstitution campaign wins gold award

The #IamConstitution campaign won the Gold Award in the education, training and skills development category of the Stars of Africa Awards.

The campaign, which was developed by the Ichikowitz Family Foundation in partnership with the Paramount Group, was launched in 2016 and is a nationwide awareness and educational drive in commemoration of the 20th anniversary of South Africa's first democratic constitution.

The awards was hosted by the American Chamber of Commerce in South Africa (Amcham) and formed part of Amcham's annual gala dinner. It took place at the Sandton Convention Centre, Johannesburg.
