

African Inspiration set to launch new safari camp

African Inspiration is set to launch the Simbavati Trails Camp on Sunday, 1 March 2020. The privately located camp borders an untouched section of wilderness in the Kruger National Park. Simbavati caters for over 16s and can host up to eight guests in its safari tents.

"Simbavati Trails Camp will serve well to complement our current offerings in the Timbavati and we look forward to taking the African safari from on a vehicle, to being on foot," says African Inspiration CEO, Arthur Collett.
