

Award for David Livingstone Safari Lodge and Spa

The David Livingstone Safari Lodge and Spa in Livingstone, Zambia is a category winner in the 2010 World Luxury Hotel Awards. The award will be presented at the World Luxury Hotel Awards Gala Dinner Ceremony, to be held on Friday, 8 October, 2010, in Dusit Thani Hua Hin, Thailand.

Each year hotels are nominated by guests, travel agents and tour operators to participate in the World Luxury Hotel Awards, exclusively for luxury hotels, lodges and resorts. Voting is cast by a selected panel of 50 leading tour operators and travel industry consultants covering all categories in the luxury hotel industry.

Views of the Zambezi river

The lodge is situated 5km from Livingstone and 7km from Victoria Falls, boasting 72 well-appointed standard en suite rooms and five luxury executive suites with private jacuzzi. In the main building, a restaurant, bar, Camelot spa and state-of-the-art conference venue with all facilities offer views of the Zambezi river.

Meals are served al fresco on the Gwembe Terrace and eternity pool overlooking the river whilst viewing captivating sunsets, or in the main lodge at the Kalai restaurant and on the 144-seater Lady Livingstone, a three-decker luxury vessel perfect for viewing game on the Zambezi.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>