

TLU SA bids farewell to Maj. Gen. Chris van Zyl and expands its team

TLU SA bids farewell to Maj. Gen. Chris van Zyl, who served nearly two decades at TLU SA and 36 years in the South African Army before that and welcomes Dr. Gawie Lotter and Mauritz Lombard to the team.

Lotter served in the South African Army for many years. After leaving the army with the rank of Colonel, he made his mark in the world of academia as a professor of strategic communication.

He served in the army and finished as a lieutenant colonel. He also practiced as a legal practitioner.
