

Mzansi NPO board names artistic planning committee

An artistic planning committee has been appointed by the board of the Mzansi National Philharmonic Orchestra (Mzansi NPO), to engage with and advise the orchestra on a number of issues, including:

- The allocation of the artistic budget of the orchestra, in particular, the funding to regional and youth orchestras;
- The provision of high-level input into the planning processes of the orchestra;
- Advising on the selection criteria for musicians who play for Mzansi NPO;
- Advising on the selection of cadets and fellows and other Mzansi NPO artistic-related matters.

Artistic planning committee members include Nina Schuman, Samson Diamond and Karendra Devroop.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>