

Curro Holdings appoints Nangamso Mankai to board of directors

Curro Holdings has appointed Nangamso Mankai to its board of directors. Mankai assists with the growth of the business' balance sheet through acquisitions in her new role.

She has nearly five years of board experience and is currently an investment professional for a local infrastructure development business.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>