

Ericsson and MTN bring LTE experience to subscribers in Ghana

Ericsson has been selected by MTN Ghana for the deployment of a new LTE network in the Greater Accra region. The deployment will enable MTN to offer its 16 million subscribers high-quality mobile broadband experiences based on HSPA and LTE technologies.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>