

New appointments at MNS Attorneys

MNS Attorneys is proud to announce the appointment of two attorneys to its board of directors. Ziyanda Nyanda and Kanabo Skhosana have been appointed as directors.

Nyanda obtained her LLB degree in 2009 and has been with MNS Attorneys since March 2018. She specialises in promotion of access to information and protection of personal information compliance, public administration law and corporate commercial law.

Skhosana obtained her LLB degree in 2013 and has been with MNS Attorneys since November 2018. She specialises in corporate commercial law, mining law, renewable energy and public administration law.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>