

Cape Royale scores World Luxury Hotel Awards

The Cape Royale Luxury Hotel added yet another two accolades to their plethora of awards at the recent World Luxury Hotel Awards ceremony and gala dinner.

Vincent Bouwer, Cape Royale Luxury Hotel Marketing Manager with Roxy Louw. Image courtesy of Julia Janse Van Vuuren Photography

The evening dazzled with glitz and glam as guests arrived adorned in ball gowns and draped in jewels for this momentous occasion. Gathering from around the globe attendees represented the world's finest hotels and spas from 144 countries. Of the 120 coveted hospitality accolades, The Cape Royale took home: Continent Winner in the category: Luxury Rooftop View Hotel and Country Winner in the category: Luxury Suite Hotel.

The Cape Royale is an all-suite 5-star hotel, located in central Green Point, just a 10-minute walk from Cape Town Stadium and the V&A Waterfront. Guests of the luxury Cape Royale have a choice between 5 dining options including The Banting Kitchen that offers an exceptional menu and a fresh alternative to modern day dining. There is also a pool bar offering views of Cape Town Harbour and Table Mountain, as well as a modern gym featuring state-of-the-art cardiovascular equipment.

Featuring contemporary décor, luxurious fabrics, fine textures and carefully selected artwork the Cape Royale Hotel creates an ambiance of elegance and understated opulence, boasting panoramic views over the city and the Atlantic Ocean. The rooftop cocktail and sushi bar too boasts 360° views for a picturesque poolside experience. Also unique to the hotel is The Banting Kitchen restaurant, a delectable destination for the discerned diner.

Says Cape Royale Luxury Hotel Marketing Manager, Vincent Bouwer: "We are only too thrilled to be awarded such fantastic and honourable awards; the gala ceremony certainly plays a great role in seeding awareness through international tourism industries."

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>