

Victoria Falls Safari Lodge wins AZTA award

Victoria Falls Safari Lodge has won the Association of Zimbabwean Travel Agents (AZTA) Best Safari Lodge of the Year award for the 16th year in a row. The announcement was made at the annual AZTA Awards ceremony held on Friday, 16 September 2011 in Harare.

"Recognition from the travel trade industry makes this accolade particularly special, so thank you to the Association of Zimbabwe Travel Agents," says Glenn Stutchbury, MD of Africa Albida Tourism. "The lodge is committed to ensuring our guests are well looked after and that our service levels and facilities at the lodge are up to the high standards of this reputable association and its members."

In addition to this award it also made its mark in the category of 'Exceptional Voluntary Service to AZTA and the Zimbabwe Tourism Industry' by taking home this award for the second year in a row.

The lodge is located four kilometres from the Victoria Falls. Designed to give the impression of a vast open-plan tree house, the lodge is built on seven intricate levels rising above the African bushveld and offers its guests views of African sunsets and year-round wildlife at its on-site waterhole - the focal point of the resort.
