Today, Smile FM announced it will be making lineup changes but they are keeping their cards very close to their chest.

At the end of March, Smile FM celebrated their 10th birthday and with that comes change.

“We are proud to say that in the last 10 years we have evolved our music, our on-air product, our brand. We believe the time is right for a fresh, new breakfast show as well as other show changes,” says Lois O’Brien, managing director.

“We would like to take this opportunity to thank the current talent for all their efforts in getting us to where we are today. We wish them everything of the best for the future,” added Naveen Singh, programme manager.
