

The World Out of Home Organisation welcomes seven new members

The World Out of Home Organisation welcomed seven new members in Argentina, Mexico, China, Japan, Saudi Arabia, the United States and the United Kingdom.

Membership is open to all companies who operate in the OOH sector and as a non-profit organisation, funds are reinvested in industry matters such as research and the annual International Congress.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>