Minister Lindiwe Zulu to launch Centre for Entrepreneurship in Cape Town

Issued by False Bay College
25 Feb 2015

Members of the media are invited to the launch of the Centre for Entrepreneurship (CfE) that will be hosted by the Department of Small Business Development and False Bay TVET College.

The Centre is a product of a five-year Memorandum of Agreement between the department and False Bay TVET College, and forms part of department's initiative to primarily target TVET institutions to promote entrepreneurship education, training and development. The Minister of Small Business Development, Ms Lindiwe Zulu, will deliver a keynote address.

Date: Tuesday, 3 March 2015
Time: 09:00
Venue: False Bay TVET College, Westlake Campus, Cape Town, Western Cape Province

The Department of Small Business Development plays a critical role in the development of small enterprises and prioritises the establishment of the CfE programme within TVET colleges and universities.

"The establishment of Centres for Entrepreneurships is consistent with our vision of building a nation of entrepreneurs," said Minister Zulu.

RSVPs should be directed to Kopano Ramashala via telephone on 012 394 1709/ 061 431 9521 or e-mail: KRamashala@thedti.gov.za.
