SABC 3 and Stella Artois are joining forces to find South Africa's next foodie sensation. In the channel's exciting new reality show, The Taste Master, aspiring, undiscovered foodies are invited to audition for the opportunity of a lifetime. South Africa's hottest culinary talent will be put to the test with a series of challenging tasks which will test their skills as they battle it out in the hopes of becoming the resident chef on the channel's popular variety show, Afternoon Express.

Afternoon Express has become synonymous for exploring exquisite cuisine and sharing exciting recipes and they're looking for the perfect resident chef to join hosts Palesa Tembe and Jeannie D every weekday at 17h00 to dish the dirt on culinary trends, share new recipes and explore culture through food. The new resident chef will be able to use the platform to showcase their gastronomic talents while making a name for themselves as an industry leader in the culinary space.

Auditions for the exciting new reality show are now open and will remain so until midnight on 20 October 2019 and the channel invites foodies to show them what they're made of. However, being a taste master is more than simply following a recipe and creating a delicious dish. Your ingredients need to take into consideration the different people, places, styles and atmospheres you'd encounter as you create the ultimate experience to elevate your dish - because every occasion needs a meal tailored to it.

Do you have a knack for creating special occasions?
You could be the next resident foodie on Afternoon Express!
