14 May 2020

BusinessTech has released the 2020 Business Marketing Report, revealing the best ways for South African companies to advertise.

The report is based on feedback from 1,327 South African professionals, business owners, company directors, C-level executives and managers.

It revealed that online advertising is the best way to reach South Africa's business professionals and decision-makers – and is far more effective than TV, radio or print advertising.

Key findings from the 2020 Business Marketing Report include:

- Online marketing is the best way to reach South Africa's business community, outperforming TV, radio, print and outdoor advertising
- Sponsored content (articles and reviews) is the most trusted form of advertising among professionals and executives
- Business professionals and executives use articles and reviews when making purchasing decisions
- Videos, social media posts, and newsletters should form part of a business marketing campaign
- Facebook, YouTube and LinkedIn are the most popular social media platforms among the business community
