Howard Audio is honoured that Swingle Bells - an album that Adam Howard and Jonathan Roxmouth produced last year - has been nominated for a Sama (South African Music Award) for best engineered album of 2020. Last year, we recorded the Johannesburg Big Band at Howard Audio, playing Roxmouth's sublime arrangements of our favourite Christmas songs.

The fact that we did all this without a record label during the most difficult period for performing artists, makes us very proud and officially launches the Howard Audio record label.

We built the Howard Audio premium three-studio facility seven years ago utilising the finest analogue gear and vintage mics and have invested back in the studio over the years acquiring a stunning Yamaha C3 grand piano.

Check out a behind-the-scenes video on how we recorded Swingle Bells.

And here is a cheeky in-studio video of Frosty the Snowman.

The logo for Howard Audio, featuring the words "HOWARD AUDIO" in a bold, yellow, sans-serif font. The text is centered on a dark, textured background that appears to be a close-up of a speaker grille or a similar mesh pattern. The lighting is slightly uneven, giving the logo a three-dimensional feel.
