Clockwork is thrilled to announce the appointment of Mathabo Diale in the position of client service director.

Mathabo Diale

With the aim of providing dynamic strategic advice and management to all the Clockwork accounts, award-winning Diale is known in the industry for striving towards excellence, building strong relationships and offering invaluable support to her teams.

After six years as business unit director of the Brave Group, she is looking forward to bringing her strong work ethic and expertise to the Clockwork group. "I'm very excited to join this team and I think the timing of the appointment couldn't be more perfect. Having previously managed mostly ATL campaigns and clients, this will be a great learning opportunity for me personally. I look forward to building great relationships with clients and creating exciting work with the agency," Diale states.

Clockwork Co-CEO Tom Manners adds: "Mathabo is a fantastic addition to the Clockwork team. Working with enthusiastic, energetic professionals is something our agency is known for and I believe her appointment will bring invaluable nurturing and development to our client roster both now and in the future."
